GUTTENBURG MEETING OVER.

Linden Dates Come Next, Then the New Jersey Jockey Club.

THE ATTENDANCE WAS LARGE and the program was an excellent one. The Guttenburg meeting ended to-day, after a successful season of 143 days.

On Monday the dates purchased from the Linden Association will be commenced, following those will be the days of the New Jersey Jockey Club, which will wind up on May 14.

The opening event to-day brought a poor lot of horses to the post. It was a dash of seven furlongs for beaten horses. Craft and Tipton were even-up favorites, with Archibald and Lucky Clover next in demand. The winner turned up in Extra, an 8 to 1 shot, who won handily from Craft. His spent was $200.

The second race was a queer affair. Rinfax was backed down to odds on, while Pedestrian rodeed. It was whispered that the latter was not at his best.

Uncertainty was also well played, and Pedestrian led into the stretch, where he died away and Pedestrian won. The race was a very close one, and the winner was not a favorite.

The third race furnished an upset, Elve, a 20 to 1 shot, winning from Double Cross, a 6 to 1 shot. John Hickley, the favorite, was a long shot, and was not a favorite.

Thomas P. Egan, manager of the betting ring, made a big winning on Elve. The Hudson County Jockey Club management declared itself in unmistakable terms to-day regarding Mr. Egan's declaration that there would certainly be racing at Monmouth Park. A member of the Guttenburg Association said:

"I will bet $5,000 that Monmouth Park will not race a week unless the Guttenburg horses are permitted to run over their track. It is a certainty that there will not be any racing at Monmouth Park and you can gamble on it."
